The potential de-listing of The Prince Regent Pub

Dear Resident,

Your local ward councillors are concerned about a developer's plans to demolish The Prince Regent pub and build a large block of flats on the site. We would like to know your views.

Part of the internal structure of The Prince Regent pub is a grade II listed building, dating back to the early 19th century, situated at the northern end of Sutton High Street. Whilst in recent years it has been developed and extended, the pub is the only remaining building of any historic value left on Sutton Green.

Mizen Properties are currently involved in discussions with Historic England to de-list the property. If successful, there may be plans to build an 8-storey block of flats on the site.

As your local Councillors, we appreciate the need to build new homes but we are increasingly wary of losing precious heritage sites and therefore seek your views on the de-listing of the Prince Regent pub.

Please use our contact details to reply to us by Monday 15th August so that we can forward on your views to Historic England. We appreciate this is a short deadline but it has been set by Historic England, not us.

We will keep you updated about the progress of this development.
