APPEAL LODGED FOR LAND TO REAR OF AULTONE WAY

An appeal has been lodged against the refusal to grant planning permission for the construction of four houses on land to the rear of 53, 55 and 57 Aultone Way.

This was planning application no. DM2018/00163

The application was refused by Sutton Council in March 2018, as it would:

'by reason of the incursion into the larger street block of Aultone Way, Grennell Road, and Rosehill Park West and the narrow access road created, result in a development which would not respect the prevailing pattern of development of the area, and would harm the character and appearance of the street scenes of Aultone Way and Grennell Road to the significant detriment of the surrounding area.

'by reason of the short separation distances to 65 Grennell Road result in harm by way of loss of outlook from the rear facing windows of this dwelling and would result in an overbearing form of development.

'result in harm to the biodiversity and ecological of the site and surrounding area.

'give rise to significant harm to the trees within and surrounding the site.'

Applicants have the right to appeal to the Planning Inspector, which acts on behalf of the government. Everyone who was originally consulted or commented on the application will be advised of the appeal. Copies of all the original letters of representation are also passed to the inspector.

Further information on how to comment are on the Planning Inspectorate web site:
