PARKING CONSULTATION IN KENDAL GARDENS

As your local councillors we are still fighting to maximise the parking space available to local residents, while making sure parking is safe and does not block access to roads or drives. In the first consultation on parking, held in 2017, most replies supported a residents' parking zone in your area. As a result the Council consulted on a Controlled Parking Zone late last year.

Many residents in Aultone Way have since told us that they support these proposals. But the Council tells us that few people in Kendal Gardens responded to the consultation. We are concerned that implementing residents only parking in Aultone Way, Greenhill and Woodend but not including Kendal Gardens could move parking into your road.

One option would be a Parking Permit Area. This is a residents' permit scheme, but without bays or yellow lines, except where needed for safety:

- Only residents with a permit can park on the road
- Hours could be 8am to 5.30pm Mon to Fri.
- Residents can park over dropped kerbs
- Permit costs are from £40 a year (77p a week), depending on the car: among the lowest in London
- Whether or not you buy a parking permit you get 50 hours (a year – ie one hour a week) of free visitor parking vouchers. Extra vouchers cost £61 for 100 (ie 60p each). Vouchers only needed when the PPA scheme is in operation – ie not evenings and weekends, when parking is free.
- The money from the permits pays for enforcement officers

The PPA would be signed at the entrances to Aultone Way and Woodend with some repeater signs. Double yellow lines would still be needed around the Aultone Way roundabouts for road safety reasons.
