PARKING PROPOSALS FOR CHUDLEIGH AND LONGFORD GARDENS

Residents will recall the consultation on the proposed 'free bay' scheme in September.

This consultation was a final statutory consultation on the Traffic Management Order needed to implement these measures. It was a chance for any final objections to be addressed.

There were only a very few objections, and those who objected are receiving replies from Council officers on the points they raised. The scheme will now be going ahead and is planned to be in place in February. We hope this will reduce parking from non-residents in the road and improve access to your properties. As with all parking schemes, it will be reviewed after a year's operation.
