PARKING PROPOSALS FOR ROSEHILL GARDENS - PUBLIC MEETING

Residents will recall the consultation on the proposed 'free bay' scheme in September.

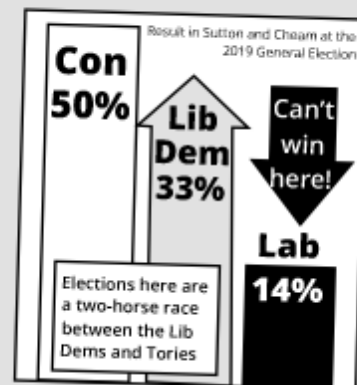

Council officers tell us that they received a very good response to the consultation, but the results were almost uniformly against the Council's proposals. However there is a strong feeling that something needs to be done and there is now a view from a lot of residents that they want a scheme with paid permits to be considered.

We have agreed with Council officers that the proposed free bay scheme should not now go ahead, as it will not address the issues that you are raising. We have asked officers to consider how a permit scheme might work and to come back with some proposals you can consider.

You are invited to a meeting on Monday 22 January at 6pm at Rosehill Community Centre, in Rosehill Park. That will give officers the opportunity to explain the options for a permit scheme, and for you to give feedback, and will help them design a workable scheme. This will then need to be subject to further consultation.

In the meantime, any issues with cars obstructing your driveways should be reported to the police on 101. The Council cannot take any action as there are no parking controls in place.
